The palate shows Bartlett pear and tropical fruits, baked brie, raw almonds, a hint of Vanilla bean with lemon zest. A balance of crisp acidity along with a creaminess that will increase over time.

Margerum 2015 'D' Sauvignon

Blanc

Drink Now - 2024

A bold expression of Sauvignon Blanc with its natural grape acidity balanced with nuances of fine oak. The texture of the wine is full and persistent due to the lees and wood complementing the strong fresh fruit in this young wine.

Rich and fruity, featuring apple, pear and melon flavors that are finely textured. Lemon curd notes emerge midpalate, with a finish that lingers with nutmeg accents.
